

THIS WEEK

December 5, 2008

Dear Parents/Guardians:

We hope that you had a wonderful Thanksgiving. The children have really seem happy to be back at school. We missed them while we were off. We know that the children are excited about Christmas, but please remind them that we are still in school to learn. The children have been very talkative this week. We know that they are excited, but we still have to learn. Thanks so much for your help.

This week we have been sorting, patterning, counting, and recognizing similarities and differences. We have also been making candy to decorate our gingerbread house around our door. The children are having fun decorating the house and hanging up their gingerbread person. They are so cute!

Please remember to send in a wrapped book by December 16th.
